These Particulars are valid from the date hereof. Neither the delivery of nor the placing, allotment or issue of any Participating Shares shall under any circumstances create any implication or constitute a representation that the information given in these Particulars is correct as of any time subsequent to the date hereof.

These Particulars constitute “scheme particulars” for the purposes of, and are prepared to comply with, the Authorised Collective Investment Schemes (Class B) Rules and Guidance 2021 (the “Rules”) as amended or replaced from time to time as issued by the Guernsey Financial Services Commission (the “GFSC”) pursuant to the Protection of Investors (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2020 (the “2020 Law”).

These Particulars are required to be revised at least annually and prospective investors should enquire of the Manager whether these Particulars have been revised or superseded.

Participating Shares are offered on the basis of the information contained in these Particulars. No broker, dealer or other person has been authorised by the Company or by any of its agents to issue any advertisement or to give any information or to make any representations in connection with the offering or sale of Participating Shares other than those contained in these Particulars and, if issued, given or made, such advertisement, information or representations must not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Company or any of its agents. Statements made in these Particulars are based on the law and practice in force at the date hereof and are subject to changes therein. Neither the delivery of these Particulars nor the issue of Participating Shares shall, under any circumstances, imply that there has been no change in the circumstances affecting any of the matters contained in these Particulars since the date of the document.

These Particulars do not constitute, and may not be used for the purposes of, an offer or solicitation to anyone in any jurisdiction in which such offer or solicitation is not authorised or to any person to whom it is unlawful to make such offer or solicitation. The distribution of these Particulars and the offering of Participating Shares in certain jurisdictions may be restricted and accordingly persons into whose possession such documents come are required to inform themselves about and to observe such restrictions.

The Participating Shares offered hereby (and these Particulars) have not been registered under the 1933 Act, as amended, nor have they been registered or approved under any other US securities laws or by any other US regulatory body. The offering of the Participating Shares is being made in reliance on an exemption from registration under the 1933 Act for a sale of securities that does not involve a public offering in the US. The Participating Shares may not be sold or otherwise disposed of in the US unless such proposed sale or disposition has been approved by the Company, in its sole discretion, and unless the Participating Shares are registered (or exempt from registration) under the 1933 Act or other US securities laws.

The offering of Participating Shares to persons who are not US persons is being made in reliance on the exemption for registration under the 1933 Act provided by Regulation S thereunder.

The information contained in these Particulars is strictly confidential and may not be reproduced or redistributed. Notwithstanding the foregoing the Directors are not obliged to issue Participating Shares to any person and reserve the right in their absolute discretion to refuse to accept any application for Participating Shares.

The Company has not been registered as an investment company under the US Investment Company Act 1940, as amended, and the Manager has not been registered under the US Investment Advisers Act 1940, as amended (“the Investment Advisers Act”). In order to ensure that the Company is not required to register under the 1940 Act, the Company will not knowingly permit the number of beneficial owners of the Company who are US persons to exceed 100 unless all such US persons are “Qualified Purchasers” (as defined by Section 2(a)(51)(A) of the 1940 Act). The Company reserves the right to refuse to accept any subscriptions for, and transfers of Participating Shares to investors whose investment might otherwise jeopardise the Company’s exemption from registration under the 1940 Act or the Manager’s exemption from registration under the Investment Advisers Act. The Company reserves the right to require a shareholder to surrender for redemption all or a portion of its Participating Shares in order to preserve the foregoing exemptions. The Company also reserves the exclusive right to make determinations regarding subscriptions, transfers, redemptions or any other matter affecting the Company and the investors.

The GFSC has authorised the Company as an authorised open-ended collective investment scheme of Class B under the 2020 Law and the Rules. It must be distinctly understood that in giving this authorisation the GFSC does not vouch for the financial soundness or the correctness of any of the statements made or opinions expressed with regard to the Company. Investors in the Company are not eligible for the payment of any compensation under the Collective Investment Schemes (Compensation of Investors) Rules 1988.

An investment in any cell of the Company should be regarded as a long-term investment. The value of Participating Shares may fall as well as rise. There can be no guarantee that the Manager's objective for each of the cells of the Company will be achieved and investors may not get back the amount originally invested. Investors are referred to the section headed "RISK FACTORS" in the relevant Supplemental Particulars.

Distribution of these Particulars is not authorised in any jurisdiction unless they are accompanied by the Company's most recent annual report and accounts. Such report shall form part of these Particulars.

Prospective investors should not treat the contents of this document as advice relating to legal, taxation, investment or any other matters and are recommended to consult their own professional advisers concerning the consequences of their acquiring, holding or disposing of Participating Shares.

THE COMPANY

Introduction

The Company was registered in Guernsey on 23 September 2004 with registration number 42343 as a non-cellular limited liability company under the name “CAM Asset Selection Limited”. On 1 February 2011 the Company converted to a protected cell company limited by shares and changed its name to “CAM Global Portfolios PCC Limited”. On 20th March 2015 the Company changed its name to “Peregrine Global Portfolios PCC Limited”. The Company is constituted as a cellular company under the Companies Law, the provisions of which permit any company to which it applies to segregate assets in separate classes or “cells” so that, on the footing that the company complies with the conditions laid down by the Companies Law, liabilities of the company attributable to one cell can only be satisfied out of the assets of that cell and holders of shares of a particular cell have no right to the assets of any other cell. Details of the Cells currently in existence or which the Directors have resolved to create can be found in the Supplemental Particulars which are included with these Particulars.

The Base Currency of the Company and of each Cell (unless otherwise stated in the relevant Supplemental Particulars) is US Dollars.

Investment Background, Objectives and Restrictions

Details of the investment background and objective of each Cell, the types of investment to be made by the Cell and any specific restrictions applicable to the Cell can be found in the relevant Supplemental Particulars.

The Directors are permitted to amend the investment objectives, policies and restrictions (including any borrowing and hedging powers) applicable to each Cell provided that no material change shall be effected without Shareholders being given a prior opportunity to deal in their Participating Shares. Shareholders will not be required to approve any amendments to the investment objectives, policies and restrictions (including any borrowing and hedging powers) applicable to each Cell although the Directors reserve the right to seek approval from Shareholders by Extraordinary Resolution in lieu of the provision of a prior opportunity to deal in their Participating Shares if they consider it appropriate to do so.

Borrowings

The Company may borrow for the account of any Cell and any limitations on the ability of the Company to borrow are detailed in the relevant Supplemental Particulars.

Distribution Policy

Under the Articles and the Rules the Directors have the power to determine the amount standing to the credit of a Cell which may be distributed by way of dividend to holders of Participating Shares (provided such amount is lawfully available for such purpose under the Companies Law). The Distribution Policy for each Cell is detailed in the Supplemental Particulars of the relevant Cell. In the event that the Directors determine to change such dividend policy, due notice of such change will be given to Shareholders of the relevant Cell(s).

RISK FACTORS

Investors should be aware of the risks inherent in investing in the Cells and should have sufficient financial awareness to evaluate such risks. Potential investors who are not able to assess the various advantages and risks associated with an investment in the Cells should not consider such an investment. Potential investors who are in any doubt as to the risks involved in investment in the Cells are recommended to obtain independent financial advice before making an investment.

Recognition of Protected Cell Company Structure

Jurisdictions other than Guernsey may not be prepared to recognise the segregation of assets and liabilities between Cells or between the Company and the Cells. As a protected cell company, the Company consists of a core and separate and distinct, but not separately incorporated, Cells. In accordance with the Companies Law, the assets and liabilities of any Cell are legally segregated and protected from those of the other Cells. Similarly, the assets and liabilities of the Company are segregated and protected from those of the Cells. The principle is that where any liability arises which is attributable to a particular Cell or to the Company only the cellular assets attributable to that Cell or the Company assets attributable to the Company should be used in satisfaction of the liability. Thus, when considering a liability attributable to a cell, the core assets and the assets attributable to any cell other than the cell to which the relevant liability is attributable, are “protected assets”. The Directors are not aware of any case in which the mechanism by which assets and liabilities are segregated through a protected cell company has been considered by a foreign court. Where the assets of a Cell of the Company are held outside Guernsey, and an action is brought against that Cell (or indeed the Company) in the jurisdiction in which the assets are located, it is not known to what extent the foreign court will assume jurisdiction, or give primacy to Guernsey corporate law in evaluating whether or not those assets are free for the purposes of any enforcement action in that jurisdiction. There is a risk that the segregation of assets and liabilities between the Cells or between the Company and the Cells may not be recognised or upheld within the courts in jurisdictions outside Guernsey. In relation to the Company, this could result in shareholders in one Cell bearing losses or liabilities in relation to another Cell which could impact upon the value of assets held within the first Cell. However, the Directors understand that, as a matter of comity, a court in a jurisdiction outside Guernsey would have to satisfy itself that it has jurisdiction (as a matter of conflict of laws), and then if it does assume jurisdiction, it would apply Guernsey law and should, therefore, recognise and uphold the manner in which assets can be segregated through the Companies Law.

The court may order that any liability a Director has for failing to inform a third party that it is contracting with the Company, or failing to specify the Cell in respect of which the third party is contracting, may be met from the cellular assets or core assets of the Company. The Company must inform any person with whom it transacts that it is a protected cell company, and must identify or specify the Cell in respect of which that person is transacting or specify that the transaction is in respect of the Company (as appropriate). If the Company fails to provide the transacting party with this information then the Directors become personally liable to the counterparty to the contract although, unless they were fraudulent, reckless, and negligent or acted in bad faith, they do have a right of indemnity against the core assets of the Company. Only the court can relieve the Directors from this liability on certain grounds set out further in the Companies Law and, in doing so, may order that any liability may be met from the cellular assets or core assets of the Company. In relation to the Company, this could result in Shareholders in one Cell bearing losses or liabilities in relation to another Cell which could impact upon the value of assets held within the first Cell.

Solvency issues for one of the Cells in the Company could in limited circumstances restrict the ability of other Cells to make distributions (including the redemption of Participating Shares). In accordance with the Companies Law, in order to effect a distribution or pay a dividend from a Cell or the Company, the Directors must be satisfied that the Company will, immediately after payment of the distribution, be solvent. Therefore, the ability of a Cell or the Company to make a distribution will be determined on the solvency of the Company as a whole rather than on the solvency of the relevant Cell or Company alone. This may restrict the Company's ability to effect distributions, pay a dividend or redeem Participating Shares, although the Directors do not anticipate any situation where the Company would not satisfy the aforementioned "solvency test". If the Company were to be restricted in its ability to effect distributions or pay a dividend in respect of the Participating Shares this could result in the holders of the Participating Shares not being able to receive a return on their investment.

General Risk Factors

- The value of Participating Shares (and the income from them) may fall as well as rise and investors may not get back, on redemption or otherwise, the amount originally invested. Accordingly, an investment in any Cell should only be made by persons who are able to bear the risk of loss of capital invested.
- No assurance can be given that the Cells will succeed in meeting their respective investment objectives or that the Manager's assessments of the short-term or long-term prospects, volatility and correlation of the types of investments referred to in the Supplemental Particulars will prove accurate.
- A Cell may invest in assets that are denominated in currencies that are different from its Base Currency. A Cell may also use Dynamic Hedging as detailed in the relevant Supplemental Particulars. The ability of the Manager to hedge currency risks may be affected by limited forward markets for the hedging of the Base Currency against the currency of investment. It is possible that the Cells may not always be fully hedged against currency fluctuations.
- The markets and investments in which the Cells may invest primarily may prove to be highly volatile from time to time as a result of, for example, sudden changes in government policies on taxation and currency repatriation or changes in legislation relating to the level of foreign ownership in companies and this may affect the price at which a Cell may liquidate positions.
- The value of the Cells' assets may be affected by uncertainties such as international political developments, changes in government policies, taxation, restrictions on foreign investment and currency fluctuations and other developments in the laws and regulations of the countries in which the Cells' assets are invested.
- If there are substantial redemption requests within a limited period of time, it may be difficult for the Manager to provide sufficient funds to meet such redemptions without liquidating positions prematurely at an inappropriate time or on unfavourable terms and thereafter it may be more difficult for the relevant Cell to generate returns since it will be operating on a smaller asset base.
- Each Cell will take a credit risk on parties with whom it trades and will also bear the risk of settlement default for currency overlay only.
- The Cells may invest in fixed interest instruments. The two primary risks for any fixed interest instruments are the risks that the underlying parties to a portfolio either default on their debt i.e. credit risk, or are not liquid enough to fulfill their obligations in a timely fashion i.e. liquidity risk.

- The Cells may, for the account of a particular class, enter into contingent liability foreign exchange derivative contracts which, in the event of fluctuations in the exchange rates between the Base Currency of the Cell and the currency of the relevant class may result in liabilities being incurred on behalf of the relevant class that are greater than the assets attributable to them. Such derivative contracts may include forward foreign exchange contracts (individually negotiated transactions that are neither traded on nor regulated by any exchange) which subject the Cells to counterparty risk and to potentially significant losses. The Cells may also enter into other speculative derivative contracts (including foreign exchange futures and options). Such contracts can create a high degree of leverage and as a result a relatively small price movement in the relevant foreign exchange rates may result in significant losses that may be in excess of the assets attributable to the class to which such transaction relates.
- Potential cross-share class liability. Shareholders should be aware that, whilst all assets, income, earnings, liabilities, expenses and costs attributable to a class will be booked against the class to which such items relate, should the liabilities of any one class exceed the assets attributable to that class, a third party creditor may have recourse against the assets of the Cell (as a whole), including its solvent classes, with a consequent reduction in the Net Asset Value of all classes of the Cell concerned.
- Some of the Cells may not pay dividends. Accordingly, an investment in those Cells may not be suitable for investors seeking income returns for financial or tax-planning purposes.
- Whilst it may be possible for the Manager to hedge some of the risks outlined above, it will not be obliged to do so and, if such hedging is carried out, there can be no assurance that it will be successful and it may negate certain profits which the Cells may otherwise have earned or even incur a loss. In particular, certain Cells may enter into forward foreign exchange contracts to hedge against the possibility that their Base Currency may suffer a decline against either (i) the currencies in which underlying investments may be denominated or (ii) the currencies in which the Participating Shares may be denominated. Forward foreign exchange contracts are not uniform as to the quantity or time at which a currency is to be delivered and are not traded on exchanges. Rather, they are individually negotiated transactions. Transactions in forward foreign exchange contracts are not regulated by any regulatory authority nor are they guaranteed by an exchange or clearing house. Each Cell will bear the cost of its own hedging. Furthermore, it may not always be possible to hedge certain risks in many of the less developed markets in which the Cells may invest as exchange-traded futures and options are not available in certain markets.
- Investments on international markets may fluctuate in price under the influence of a variety of issues such as currency rates and interest rates, exchange controls, taxes and other economic and political developments. Other factors such as the availability of information on, and the size and liquidity of, international markets may limit the intended diversification of the Cells' resources.
- The Cells have no obligation to redeem Participating Shares at the Subscription Price originally paid and redeeming investors may not receive the amount originally invested.
- The Manager is required to rely on Portfolio Managers' valuations of the Investment Vehicles in which the Cells may invest including, in some instances, estimated valuations. Portfolio Managers may revise their valuations, sometimes materially which may affect the Net Asset Value of a Cell and the dealing prices of the Participating Shares.
- Changes in legal, tax and regulatory regimes may occur during the life of the Company which may have an adverse effect on the Cells and their investments.

- The Manager may agree with certain Shareholders to rebate part of its fees payable to it with respect to investments made by such Shareholders. Such rebates may be applied towards the purchase of additional Participating Shares for the Shareholder concerned. The Manager may also agree with other parties that assist in the distribution and marketing of the Cells to rebate part of its fees payable to it with respect to such distribution and marketing of Participating Shares.
- By applying for Participating Shares in a Cell of the Company and agreeing to provide settlement in cash following the relevant Subscription Day, investors acknowledge and agree that the relevant Cell may acquire investments in anticipation of receipt of the Subscription Price for the Participating Shares. If cleared funds are not received by the relevant settlement date in respect of the Participating Shares, the Manager may need to liquidate positions prematurely at an inappropriate time or on unfavourable terms due to such failure by an investor to pay the anticipated Subscription Price and the relevant Cell may also incur administrative costs and/or other investment losses associated with the forfeiture of such Participating Shares which may result in an adverse effect on the Net Asset Value of the Cell.

Market Disruption

The financial services industry generally, and certain investment activities of private investment funds similar to the Company, and their managers, in particular, have been subject to intense and increasing regulatory scrutiny. Market disruptions (including the recent market downturn and the global credit crisis), the dramatic increase in capital allocated to alternative investment strategies, and the growing concern about the lack of regulation of private investment funds have led to the proposal of various U.S. federal, state and local and non-U.S. laws and regulations regarding private investment funds and may in the future lead to additional proposals. Such scrutiny may increase the Company's and the Manager's exposure to potential liabilities and to legal, compliance and other related costs. Increased regulatory oversight, enhanced regulation and the adoption of new statutes, rules or regulations with respect to the investment activities of the Cells may also reduce the amount and availability of the investment opportunities of the Cells. The reduction of such investment opportunities could have a material and adverse effect on the investment performance of the Cells. Such increased regulatory oversight and regulation may also impose additional administrative burdens on the Manager and such regulatory proposals, or any future proposals, if adopted could adversely affect the Cells, including the business, financial condition and prospects of the Cells, and could also require increased transparency as to the identity of the Shareholders.

The financial crisis that began in 2008 has caused pervasive and fundamental disruptions in the global financial markets, leading to extensive governmental and regulatory intervention. Such intervention has, in certain cases, been implemented on an "emergency" basis, suddenly hindering or eliminating market participants' ability to implement certain investment strategies or to manage the risk of their outstanding positions. In addition, these interventions have at times been, and may in the future be, unclear in scope and application, resulting in confusion and uncertainty that in turn have been, and may in the future be, materially detrimental to the efficient functioning of the markets as well as of previously successful investment strategies. It is impossible to predict what additional interim or permanent government and regulatory restrictions may be imposed on the markets and/or the effect of such restrictions on the Company. However, the Manager believes that there is a high likelihood of significantly increased regulation of the financial markets and that such increased regulation could have a material adverse effect on the Cells.

The Cells may incur major losses in the event that disrupted markets and/or other extraordinary events affect markets in a way that is not consistent with historical pricing relationships. The risk of loss from the disconnection from historical prices during periods of market disruption is compounded by the fact that in disrupted markets many positions become illiquid, making it difficult or impossible to close out positions against which the markets are moving. The financing available to the Company from its banks, dealers and other counterparties is typically reduced in disrupted markets. Such a reduction may result in substantial losses to the Cells. In 1994, in 1998 and again in the “financial crisis” of 2007-2009, a sudden restriction of credit by the dealer community resulted in forced liquidations and major losses for a number of investment vehicles focused on credit-related investments. However because market disruptions and losses in one sector can cause ripple effects in other sectors, many investment vehicles suffered heavy losses even though they were not heavily invested in credit-related investments.

In addition, the global financial markets may undergo further fundamental disruptions in the future, which could result in renewed governmental interventions which may be materially detrimental to the performance of the Cells. Furthermore, market disruptions caused by unexpected political, military and terrorist events may from time to time cause dramatic losses for the Cells, and such events can result in otherwise historically low-risk strategies performing with unprecedented volatility and risk. A financial exchange may from time to time suspend or limit trading. Such a suspension could render it difficult or impossible for the Cells to liquidate affected positions and thereby expose it to losses. There is also no assurance that off-exchange markets will remain liquid enough for the Cells to close out positions.

Managed Accounts

Upon the Investment Advisor’s advice, the Company may, on behalf of certain Cells, allocate certain money to Portfolio Managers running Managed Accounts. Such Managed Accounts will be maintained with the Custodian who will be responsible for the safe custody of the assets thereof in accordance with the Rules. Any loss arising as a result of an investment in a Managed Account will be borne by the Shareholders.

Duplicate Costs

By investing in Portfolio Vehicles indirectly through a Cell, each investor bears asset-based fees at the Cell level and the Portfolio Vehicle level, as well as performance based fees or allocations at the Portfolio Vehicle level. Each investor must also bear its proportionate share of the other fees and expenses of the Cell and, indirectly, similar fees and expenses of the Portfolio Vehicle.

Incentive Fees Payable Irrespective of Cell Performance

Each Portfolio Vehicle in which a Cell invests will receive any performance based fees or allocations to which it is entitled irrespective of the performance of the Cell generally. Accordingly, the Portfolio Manager of a Portfolio Vehicle with positive performance may receive compensation indirectly from the Cell even if the Cell’s overall investment return is negative.

Interest Rate Risk

The price of securities tends to be sensitive to interest rate fluctuations and unexpected fluctuations in interest rates could cause the corresponding prices of a position to move in directions that were not initially anticipated.

Brokers

The Company may use the services of brokers for trading and custody of assets. Some brokers are not obliged to segregate client assets from proprietary assets and in the event of the insolvent liquidation of such brokers, any assets which may not clearly be identified as client assets may be available to the liquidator, leaving the Company with only an unsecured claim in the insolvency ranking no more than pari passu with the claims of other unsecured creditors.

The foregoing factors are not exhaustive and do not purport to be a complete explanation of all the risks and considerations involved in investing in the Cells.

In particular, each Cell's performance may be affected by changes in market or economic conditions, and legal, regulatory and tax requirements. The Cells will be responsible for paying the fees, charges and expenses referred to in these Particulars regardless of the level of profitability.

SUBSCRIPTION, REDEMPTION AND CONVERSION OF SHARES

Application Procedure

Details of the terms on which the initial offer of Participating Shares of any Cell are made can be found in the relevant Supplemental Particulars. After the applicable Closing Date for a Cell, investors can subscribe for Participating Shares in that Cell on the Subscription Day appointed for the Cell specified in the relevant Supplemental Particulars. Applications may be made for Participating Shares of a certain value on the relevant Subscription Day.

The relevant Supplemental Particulars set out effectively the procedure for lodging an application for the subscription of Participating Shares, together with relevant deadlines in respect of completing the application form and arranging for the clearance of funds.

The attention of investors is drawn to the Privacy Notice at Appendix 1 which sets out how and why the Company and its service providers process personal data.

Calculation of Subscription and Redemption Prices

In order to determine the price at which Participating Shares of each Cell may be issued or redeemed on each Dealing Day ("Subscription Price" and "Redemption Price", respectively) the assets of each Cell will be valued at the Valuation Point attributable to such Dealing Day. Such valuation is used to determine the price at which the Manager will issue and redeem Participating Shares on that day.

A single price at which Participating Shares of each Cell may be issued and redeemed is calculated by dividing the Net Asset Value of each Cell by the number of Participating Shares in issue for that Cell as described in more detail in the Articles. The resultant price for each Cell is rounded to four decimal places or as otherwise determined by the Directors and any rounding will be retained for the benefit of the Cell.

Equalisation

The Manager does not intend for the time being to operate an equalisation procedure but, if it resolved to do so in the future, on the first distribution following the purchase of Participating Shares, the Shareholder would receive as part of that distribution a capital sum representing that part of the Subscription Price which represents the value of the accrued income at the time of purchase.

Initial Charge

The Articles permit the Company to charge an initial charge on the sale or issue of Participating Shares of up to a maximum of 5 per cent of the subscription amount. Details of the initial fees currently applicable to each Cell are set out in the Supplemental Particulars. The Company may differentiate between applicants as to the amount of the initial charge required to be paid.

Redemption Charge

The Articles permit the Company to charge a redemption charge on the redemption of Participating Shares of up to a maximum of 2 per cent of the redemption amount. Details of the redemption fees currently applicable to each Cell are set out in the Supplemental Particulars, which fees may be waived by the Manager in its sole discretion from time to time either generally or in a particular case.

Minimum Subscription

Details of the minimum subscription and the minimum additional amount which may be subscribed at any time applicable to each Cell are set out in the relevant Supplemental Particulars. The Manager may vary these amounts but not so as to reduce them below the amounts specified in the relevant Supplemental Particulars or to require Shareholders to increase their holdings in a particular Cell.

Contract Notes

A contract note will be sent by e-mail to the applicant, within seven Business Days and will usually be sent on the first Business Day after the relevant Dealing Day providing details (including the contractual settlement date of the transaction) and a Shareholder number which should be quoted in any correspondence by the Shareholder with the Manager. With the exception of contract notes, no other form of acknowledgement of receipt of subscription, redemption or transfer orders shall be issued. Should the subscriber, redeemer or transferor ("the Instructor") wish to receive such confirmation following the submission of the instruction the Instructor should contact the Administrator to ensure the instruction is being processed.

All Participating Shares will be issued in registered form and the Register will be conclusive evidence of ownership. Any Shareholder may inspect the Register of Shareholders at the office of the Administrator, the address of which is stated in the Directory at the end of these Particulars, during usual office hours. The Manager and/or the Administrator reserves the right to require an indemnity or verification countersigned by a bank, stockbroker or other party acceptable to it before the Administrator can accept instructions to alter the Register.

Redemption Procedure

Participating Shares of each Cell may be redeemed at the ruling Redemption Price on any Redemption Day ("the Relevant Redemption Day") subject to such period of notice as may be specified in the relevant Supplemental Particulars.

The Redemption Procedure for each Cell is set out in the relevant Supplemental Particulars.

Provided that the redemption request is in order and subject to any liquidity constraints applicable to the Cell's investments on the Relevant Redemption Day, payment of the redemption proceeds will usually be made three (3) Business Days after of the Relevant Redemption Day. Payment will be made to the bank specified on the original application for Participating Shares unless the Manager is advised of any further instructions as above. Settlement will be effected by telegraphic transfer in accordance with the redeeming Shareholder's instructions. All redemption monies will be paid in the currency of the class of Participating Shares being redeemed. In all cases, payment will be effected at the risk of the redeeming Shareholder and his expense as regards bank charges. Shareholders requesting payment in another currency or by a different means may do so, but any costs incurred may be deducted by the Administrator from the amount being paid. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, and pursuant to the Articles, on any such redemption the Directors shall have the power to divide in specie the whole or part of the assets of the relevant Cell and to appropriate such assets in satisfaction or part satisfaction of the proceeds of redemption.

The redemption of Participating Shares and/or the payment of redemption proceeds may be suspended in the circumstances set out under the heading "Suspension of Calculation of Net Asset Value and Dealing" of these Particulars.

Deferral of Redemptions and Conversions

The Directors may limit the total number of Participating Shares in a Cell or class which may be redeemed or converted on any Redemption Day to 10 per cent (or such higher percentage as the Directors may determine) of the total number of Participating Shares in issue in that Cell or class or such sum as may be specified in the relevant Supplemental Particulars, whichever is the lower. The limitation will be applied pro rata to all Shareholders who have requested redemptions to be effected on or as at such Redemption Day so that the proportion of each holding redeemed is the same for all such Shareholders. Any Participating Shares which, by virtue of this limitation, are not realised on any particular Redemption Day shall be carried forward for redemption on the next following Redemption Day at the Redemption Price ruling on that Redemption Day. In respect of any Redemption Day to which redemption requests ("Deferred Requests") are deferred, such requests will be dealt with in priority to other requests for redemption of Participating Shares on that day ("Other Requests") until the Deferred Requests have been satisfied in full. The deferral powers described in this paragraph shall apply mutatis mutandis to any Other Requests which, as a result of the above limit, have not been satisfied in full on any Redemption Day.

Compulsory Redemption and Closure of Cell/Classes

The Directors have the power under the Articles in their absolute discretion to compulsorily redeem at any time the Participating Shares of any investor (i) which, as a result of a redemption of any part of the investor's holding, have a value of less than the minimum amount detailed in the relevant Supplemental Particulars; or (ii) who holds Participating Shares directly or beneficially in breach of any law or requirement of any country governmental or regulatory authority; or (iii) whose existence as a Shareholder in the Company causes or threatens to cause the Company or any Cell to incur any liability to taxation or to suffer any pecuniary or other disadvantage in any jurisdiction which it would otherwise not have expected to incur or suffer; or (iv) whose existence as a Shareholder may cause the Company to be classified as an "investment company" under the 1940 Act, or (v) in circumstances where any person or persons fail to provide in a timely manner such information as the Manager considers necessary or desirable to comply with FATCA and/or CRS.

The Directors also have the power to give not less than 21 clear days' notice (expiring on a Dealing Day) in order to compulsorily redeem all Participating Shares in issue, if at any time the aggregate Net Asset Value of all Cells then in existence as at each Valuation Point falling within a period of 12 consecutive weeks is less than, or less than the equivalent of, US$25 million. A power of compulsory redemption is also exercisable by the Directors (subject to notice as aforesaid) in the event that, if at any time after its creation, the Net Asset Value of any Cell or class as at each Valuation Point within any consecutive 12 week period is less than the amount specified for the Cell or class concerned in the relevant Supplemental Particulars. This power is without prejudice to the ability of Shareholders to convert their Participating Shares in such Cell or class into Participating Shares of another Cell or class, as the case may be.

Without prejudice to the powers of winding up contained in the Articles, the Directors also have the power in their absolute discretion to discontinue all classes of Participating Shares or any particular class of Participating Shares at any time and to implement any necessary arrangements in respect thereof, including the compulsory redemption of Participating Shares and the distribution by any lawful means of any surplus to the Shareholders. Upon the Directors resolving to close all classes or a particular class of Participating Shares, all redemption requests served on the Company but which have not been redeemed shall be deemed to be cancelled and of no effect, and all Participating Shares then in issue in respect of the Company or the class concerned shall be subject to compulsory redemption and/or cancellation by the Company as part of the closure process.

Conversion Procedure

Shareholders will be entitled to exchange Participating Shares in one Cell (the "original Cell") for Participating Shares in any other Cell then in existence or agreed to be brought into existence (the "new Cell"). Shareholders will also be entitled to exchange Participating Shares between classes within the same Cell under the following procedure and, for the purposes of this section, references to original Cell and new Cell may be construed as references to the original class and new class of a Cell. Shareholders are required to give the same period of notice for the conversion of Participating Shares of the original Cell as they would have to give for the redemption of those Participating Shares. Any conversion request received after 4.00 p.m. (or such other time as the Directors may determine either generally or in relation to a Cell or in any specific case) on any Business Day may be deemed to have been received on the next following Business Day.

Instructions for the conversion of Participating Shares may be given in writing by post, fax or electronic means to the Administrator at its address stated in the Directory and such instructions must specify the number or value and the class of Participating Shares to be converted, the class of Participating Shares into which they are to be converted and should quote the relevant Shareholder number. The Administrator will be deemed to be authorised to make such conversion if instructed to do so by any person purporting to be the Shareholder and reciting the relevant Shareholder number.

Where a conversion is to a share class not previously held, the Manager will require the shareholder to provide updated bank account details to which redemption proceeds from the new share class must be paid.

The conversion will be effected at the Subscription and Redemption Prices of Participating Shares in the relevant Cells in accordance (or nearly as may be in accordance) with the formula:

$$NS = \{(OS \times RP) \times CF\} \div SP$$

where:-

- NS* is the number of Participating Shares of the new Cell to be issued;
- OS* is the aggregate number of Participating Shares of the original Cell to be converted comprised in the conversion notice;
- RP* is the Redemption Price per share of the original Cell ruling on the relevant Redemption Day;
- CF* is the currency conversion factor determined by the Manager on the relevant Redemption Day as representing the effective rate of exchange applicable between the base currencies of the relevant Cells; and
- SP* is the Subscription Price per share for the new Cell ruling on the relevant Subscription Day for the new Cell.

Conversions will be held over to the next available Redemption and Subscription Day where there is a suspension in the calculation of the Net Asset Value of either the original Cell or the new Cell.

Contract notes confirming the redemption and subscription values relating to the conversion between the Cells will be issued by the Administrator.

The Manager may agree, in its sole discretion, to implement conversion arrangements for any Shareholder between the Cell and other collective investment schemes managed by the Peregrine Group ("Associated Fund"). In such cases, it is anticipated that such conversions will take the form of a co-ordinated subscription request (to the Associated Fund) and redemption request (to the Cell) and the relevant Shareholder will be deemed to authorise the Manager to make such applications on behalf of the relevant Shareholder. Acceptance of the Shareholder into the Associated Fund may be subject to the provision by the Shareholder (i) of completed subscription materials in respect of the Associated Fund, (ii) indemnities in favour of the Manager, and/or (iii) such other information by the Shareholder that the Manager may request.

If the dealing days of the Cell and the Associated Fund are not the same or if the subscription notice period on the Associated Fund has not been satisfied, then the redemption proceeds from the Cell shall be applied towards a subscription to the Associated Fund to be processed on its next occurring dealing day.

No interest shall be payable by the Manager and/or the Fund during periods where Shareholders are out of the market as a result of conversions between Cells, share classes and/or Associated Funds.

Conversion Charges

No charge shall be payable to the Manager in respect of a conversion of Participating Shares.

Calculation of Net Asset Value

The Net Asset Value of each Cell will be calculated by the Administrator in respect of each Valuation Point. Under the Articles the Net Asset Value of a Cell is determined by deducting the value of the total liabilities of the Cell from the value of the total assets of the Cell as described in more detail in the Articles. Total assets include all cash, accounts receivable, accrued interest and the current market values of all investments. Total liabilities include any fees payable to the Manager, the Custodian and the Administrator, all borrowings, provision for taxes (if any) allowances for contingent liabilities and any other costs and expenses reasonably and properly incurred by the Manager in effecting the acquisition or disposal of securities. Further information on the valuation of assets is provided in section 3 of "Additional Information" below.

The Company may receive gross valuations in respect of certain investments (e.g. Managed Accounts) and the Directors will accrue any applicable management/performance fees (payable at such underlying level) in a manner which they deem to be equitable to Shareholders.

Publication of Net Asset Value and Prices

The Net Asset Value per Participating Share of each Cell is calculated for each Dealing Day and the Subscription and Redemption Price (exclusive of any initial charge) for each Cell will be available on request from the Manager and shall be published in such publications as may be detailed in the relevant Supplemental Particulars.

Suspension of Calculation of Net Asset Value and Dealing

The Manager, with the prior agreement of the Custodian, may suspend the calculation of the Net Asset Value and the issue, redemption and conversion of Participating Shares of a Cell or class during:-

- (a) any period when any Recognised Investment Exchange on which any material part of the investments comprised in the Cell or class concerned for the time being are listed or dealt in is closed (otherwise than for ordinary holidays) or during which dealings are restricted or suspended, or in the case of investment in a unit trust, mutual fund or open-ended investment company, when the issue or redemption of units or shares is suspended or postponed;
- (b) the existence of any state of affairs which, in the opinion of the Manager, constitutes an emergency as a result of which disposal of investments comprised in the Cell would not be reasonably practicable or might seriously prejudice the interests of the Shareholders as a whole;
- (c) any breakdown in the means of communication normally employed in determining the price of any of the investments comprised in the Cell or class or the current price on any investment exchange or when for any reason the prices of any investments cannot be promptly and accurately ascertained;
- (d) any period when currency conversions which will or may be involved in the realisation of the investments comprised in the Cell or class or in the payment for investments cannot, in the opinion of the Manager, be carried out at normal rates of exchange; or
- (e) any period as the Manager may determine if the Manager is of the opinion that due to exceptional circumstances there is good and sufficient reason to do so having regard to the interest of Shareholders.

If any such suspension is declared after redemption but prior to remittance of such redemption proceeds the Company may withhold such payments until the end of such suspension.

Following a suspension, the calculation of the Subscription and Redemption Prices will commence at the Valuation Point for the Dealing Day next after the last day of the suspension period. The fees of the Custodian, the Administrator and the Manager will continue to accrue during the period of suspension and will be calculated by reference to the last valuation prior to the suspension coming into effect.

Eligible Investors and "US Persons"

Each investor must represent and warrant to the Directors that, inter alia, he is able to acquire and hold Participating Shares without violating applicable laws or governmental authority, including exchange control regulations in any jurisdiction.

The Manager will not knowingly offer or sell Participating Shares to any investor to whom such offer or sale would be unlawful, might result in any Cell or the Company incurring any liability to taxation or suffering any other pecuniary disadvantage which any Cell or the Company might not otherwise incur or suffer or would result in the Company being required to register under the 1940 Act. Each potential investor shall be required to confirm in the application form that, amongst other things, it and each beneficial investor for whom it is acting was outside the United States at the time of execution of the application form and that the Participating Shares are not being acquired, directly or indirectly, for the account or benefit of a US Person or a person in the United States.

The Company will not be registered under the 1940 Act.

Meaning of "US Person"

For the purpose of these Particulars, but subject to such applicable law and to such changes as may be notified by the Manager to applicants for Participating Shares and transferees, a US Person shall have the same meaning as in Regulation S, as amended from time to time, of the 1933 Act.

Transfers of Participating Shares

The Participating Shares are freely transferable although the Directors have a discretion to refuse to register a transfer of Participating Shares if as a result a Cell or the Company might incur any liability to taxation or suffer any other pecuniary disadvantage which the Cell or the Company as the case may be might not otherwise incur or suffer or if as a result the Company was required to register under the 1940 Act. The Directors will not exercise such discretion unreasonably. All proposed transfers shall be effected by a stock transfer form available from the Manager. Such completed stock transfer forms shall be delivered to the Manager together with an application form completed in accordance with the procedures set out in the section headed "Application Procedure" above.

Provision of Information and Documentation

The Manager may require that Shareholders provide, and the Manager (and any authorised third party agent or delegate of the Manager) shall be entitled to use and disclose, any information or documentation in relation to Shareholders and, if and to the extent required, the direct and indirect beneficial owner(s) (if any) of Participating Shares held by Shareholders, as may be necessary or desirable for the Manager and/or Custodian to comply with any reporting or other obligations, such as FATCA, CRS and/or prevent or mitigate the withholding of tax under FATCA, CRS or other law.

Under the terms of the Administration Agreement dated 16 June 2016 (as amended) (the "Administration Agreement") the Administrator has been appointed as Administrator, Secretary and Registrar of the Company. Pursuant to the Administration Agreement, the Manager has delegated certain of its functions, powers, discretions, duties and obligations. The Administrator may, subject to applicable law and upon prior written notice to the Company, delegate any and all of its duties and obligations hereunder to another member of the Northern Trust group provided that the Administrator shall remain liable for the acts or omissions of any delegate appointed by it as if such acts or omissions were its own.

In the absence of fraud, wilful default or negligence, the Administrator shall not be liable for any loss or damage suffered by the Manager or the Company or any holder of Participating Shares incurred by any of them as a result of the performance or non-performance by the Administrator of its obligations and duties. The Company, out of the assets of the Cells, shall indemnify and hold harmless the Administrator (and its officers, employees and authorised representatives) against all claims and demands which may be made against the Administrator in respect of any loss or damage sustained or suffered or alleged to have been sustained or suffered by the Administrator otherwise than by reason of the fraud, wilful default or negligence of the Administrator.

Subject to the Rules, any of the Company, the Manager or the Administrator may terminate the Administration Agreement by giving not less than 90 days' notice in writing to the other parties however the Administration Agreement may also be terminated immediately by notice in writing by any party in certain circumstances (for example, the insolvency of a party or unremedied breach after notice). The Administrator may also be removed by notice in writing given by the Custodian to the Administrator in any of the events specified in the Rules. In all cases, and in accordance with the Rules, the removal or resignation of the Administrator shall not be effective until a replacement administrator has been appointed by the Company and the Manager and approved by the GFSC.

For the purpose of the 2020 Law and the Rules the Administrator is the “designated administrator” of the Company.

The Administrator is responsible for keeping of the register of Shareholders. All Participating Shares issued will be registered and the Register will be conclusive evidence of ownership. The Register may be inspected by Shareholders during normal business hours on any Business Day at the registered office of the Administrator.

Any changes to a Shareholder’s details must be notified immediately to the Administrator in writing. The Manager reserves the right to require an indemnity or verification countersigned by a bank, stockbroker or other party acceptable to it before the Administrator (or sub-administrator, if any) can accept instructions to alter the register.

The Custodian

Northern Trust (Guernsey) Limited (the “Custodian”) has been appointed to act as custodian of all of the Company’s assets pursuant to an amended and restated custodian agreement dated 16 June 2016 (as amended) (the “Custodian Agreement”) between the Company and the Custodian.

Under the Rules, the Custodian is responsible for the following functions in respect of the Company:

- to take reasonable care to ensure the Company is properly managed by the Manager and Administrator and (i) to ensure the decisions of the Manager in respect of the investment of the scheme property are carried out in accordance with the Articles, the Particulars and the Rules, and (ii) to ensure the Administrator monitors the constituents of the scheme property in accordance with the Articles, the Particulars and the Rules;

The Custodian will maintain an appropriate level of supervision over any sub-custodian and will make appropriate enquiries periodically to confirm that the obligations of any sub-custodian continue to be competently discharged.

Pursuant to the Custodian Agreement, securities held by the Custodian may be combined with securities belonging to other clients of the Custodian. The Company and each Cell shall not have any rights to the redelivery of the same securities as originally deposited with the Custodian but will instead be entitled to securities of the same number, class, denomination and issue as those originally deposited. Where securities are held in an omnibus account together with, or registered collectively in the same name as, securities held by the Custodian for other clients, the entitlements of the Company or the Cell may not be identifiable by separate certificates, other physical documents of title or equivalent electronic records, and accordingly in the event of an irreconcilable shortfall and the insolvency of a sub-custodian or settlement system, any shortfall may be shared pro-rata among all the clients of the Custodian (including the Company or the relevant Cell) whose securities are held in such omnibus account or registered in such name. If the Company or a Cell invests in markets where custodial and/or settlement systems are not fully developed, the assets of the Company or the relevant Cell which are traded in such markets and which have been entrusted to sub-custodians, in circumstances where the use of sub-custodians is necessary, may be exposed to risk in circumstances whereby the Custodian will have no liability.

The Custodian is not responsible for the selection or valuation of investments.

The Custodian shall be liable to the Company or the relevant Cell in respect of any losses, damages, liabilities and all reasonable proper costs and expenses (together "Losses") reasonably and properly incurred by the Company or the relevant Cell as a direct result of the negligence, wilful default or fraud of the Custodian any of its appointed sub-custodians. The Custodian shall not be liable to the Company, the relevant Cell or the Shareholders for, amongst other things, Losses arising from the insolvency or any similar event affecting any sub-custodian, broker, dealer, bank or other agent engaged in connection with the provision of services to the Company.

The Company, out of the assets of the Cells, shall indemnify and hold harmless the Custodian against all liabilities, actions, claims, proceedings and demands which may be made against the Custodian in respect of any loss or damage sustained or suffered by the Custodian otherwise than by reason of the negligence, wilful default or fraud of the Custodian.

Subject to the Rules, any of the Company or the Custodian may terminate the Custodian Agreement by giving not less than 90 days' notice in writing to the other parties however the Custodian Agreement may also be terminated immediately by notice in writing by any party in certain circumstances (for example, the insolvency of a party or unremedied breach after notice). In all cases, and in accordance with the Rules, the removal or resignation of the Custodian shall not be effective until a replacement custodian has been appointed by the Company and approved by the GFSC.

The Auditors

Deloitte LLP, Regency Court, Glatigny Esplanade, St Peter Port, Guernsey, GY1 3HW, have been appointed as auditors to the Company. The Company shall at each annual general meeting appoint or re-appoint the auditors to hold office until the next annual general meeting. ### Fees of the Manager

The Company has agreed with the Manager that the Manager shall be entitled to periodic fees from each Cell for its services under the Management Agreement. The fees payable by each Cell are detailed in the relevant Supplemental Particulars.

Fees and charges in relation to Cells other than those with which the Company is initially constituted will be agreed between the Directors and the Manager at the time of creation of such additional Cells.

Custodian Fees

The fees payable by each Cell to the Custodian are detailed in the relevant Supplemental Particulars.

Administration Fees

The fees payable by each Cell to the Administrator are detailed in the relevant Supplemental Particulars.

Portfolio Vehicle Fees

Portfolio Vehicles will charge their investors (including the Cells) a management fee and/or a performance-based fee. The Manager's remuneration will not be offset by these fees except in the case of collective investment schemes managed by the Peregrine Group (see "Fees of the Manager" in the relevant Supplemental Particulars for treatment of fees in these circumstances). It is also possible that one or more of the Portfolio Managers will earn a performance-based fee while the performance of the relevant Cell's investments, in the aggregate, may be at a net loss.

Other Operating Expenses

The Manager will be responsible for the payment of the fees of the Investment Advisor although the Company will meet reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Investment Advisor in furtherance of its duties.

The Manager and the Administrator will be responsible for providing all office personnel, office space and office facilities required for the performance of their services. The Company will pay on-going legal, audit and administrative expenses incidental to its operations and business, including but not limited to (1) brokerage commissions and charges, foreign exchange costs and registration fees relating to investments (2) fees and charges of agents, (3) interest on debit balances and other bank charges, (4) the costs of maintaining the Company's registered office in Guernsey, and (5) any income taxes, withholding taxes and other government charges and duties for which the Company is liable, (6) the cost of purchasing and maintaining insurance for or for the benefit of any persons who are or

- (i) all other charges or fees expressly authorised by the Supplemental Particulars, the Articles or by law; and
- (j) the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Investment Advisor in furtherance of its duties.

Each Director of the Company is entitled to receive a fee of up to US$10,000 per annum plus reimbursement of travel and other costs incurred in connection with the attendance of board and other meetings of the Company. Such fees may be increased from time to time by Ordinary Resolution.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

The Manager and the Investment Advisor may from time to time act as managers, investment managers or advisers to other funds. It is therefore possible that the Manager and/or the Investment Advisor may, in the course of their business, have potential conflicts of interest with the Company or a Cell. The Manager may, for example, make investments for other clients or on its own behalf without making the same available to the Company or a Cell. Each of the Manager and the Investment Advisor will, however, have regard in such event to its obligations under the Management Agreement and the Investment Advisory Agreement respectively and, in particular, to its obligations to act in the best interests of the Company and each Cell so far as practicable, having regard to its obligations to other clients when undertaking any investment where potential conflicts of interest may arise. The Administrator may provide similar services for other similar funds.

Under the Articles cash forming part of the assets of any Cell may be placed by the Custodian in any current, deposit or loan account with itself or the Manager (if a bank) or with any affiliate of the Custodian or the Manager so long as that bank pays interest thereon at a rate no lower than is, in accordance with normal banking practice, the commercial rate for deposits of the size of deposit in question negotiated at arm's length.

The Articles also provide that the Manager, the Custodian and any investment advisor to or delegate of the Manager or any Associate of any of them may:-

- (1) deal in property of any description on that party's individual account notwithstanding the fact that property of that description is included in the assets of any Cell;
- (2) act as agent in the sale or purchase of property to or from the Custodian for the account of the Company;

without that party having to account to any other such party, to the Shareholders or any of them for any profits or benefits made by or derived from or in connection with any such transaction.

Cash forming part of the assets of a Cell may be invested in units in collective investment schemes managed or operated by the Manager or by another body corporate in the same group as the Manager or the Custodian.

ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING AND COUNTERING THE FINANCING OF TERRORISM DISCLOSURE AND AGREEMENT

The Manager and the Administrator comply with applicable anti-money laundering and countering the financing of terrorism (“AML/CFT”) laws. In particular, they must meet the criteria set by the GFSC from time to time in accordance with Schedule 3 of the Criminal Justice (Proceeds of Crime) (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 1999 as amended. None of the Manager, the Administrator or the Company accepts cash or money derived from, or intended for use in, any illegal activity. To comply with its AML/CFT obligations, the Manager will seek (or procure that the Administrator and/or any sub-administrator will seek), and investors will be required to provide, information and documentation to ensure AML/CFT compliance.

Information and documentation that the Manager will request is set out in the application form. Pending the provision of information and documentation sufficient to satisfy the Manager’s AML/CFT obligations, the Manager may retain an investor’s money without transferring Participating Shares to the investor. If sufficient information and documentation is not provided within a reasonable period of time, the Manager will return the investor’s money without processing the subscription. The Manager reserves the right to reject any subscription or to redeem any shareholdings if the Manager deems such action necessary to comply with any legal obligation or if the Manager believes that an investor has failed to provide truthful information or documentation, as requested by the Manager, regarding the investor’s identity, background, source of investment funds, or other information or documentation relevant to the Manager’s AML/CFT obligations. A new investor into the Company need only provide the information requested once. This information will be kept on file and will only need to be updated should there be any relevant changes made. References to the “Manager” in this paragraph shall include its nominees and duly appointed agents including, but not limited to, the Administrator.

TAXATION

Guernsey Taxation

The following summary of the anticipated tax treatment in Guernsey applies to persons holding Participating Shares as an investment. The summary does not constitute legal or tax advice and is based on taxation law and practice at the date of these Particulars. Prospective investors should be aware that the level and bases of taxation may change from those described and should consult their own professional advisers on the implications of making an investment in, holding or disposing of Participating Shares under the laws of the countries in which they are liable to taxation.

Taxation of the Company

The Company has applied for and been granted exemption from liability to income tax in Guernsey under the Income Tax (Exempt Bodies) (Guernsey) Ordinance, 1989 as amended by the Director of the Revenue Service in Guernsey for the current year. Exemption must be applied for annually and will be granted, subject to the payment of an annual fee, which is currently fixed at £1,200 per applicant (which is not dependant on the number of Cells comprised in the Company), provided the applicant meets the conditions to qualify under the applicable legislation for exemption. It is the intention of the Directors to conduct the affairs of the Company so as to ensure that it continues to qualify for exempt company status for the purposes of Guernsey taxation.

As an exempt company, the Company is and will be treated as if it were not resident in Guernsey for the purposes of Guernsey income tax. As such, under current law and practice in Guernsey, the Company will be exempt from Guernsey income tax on any non-Guernsey sourced income (including Guernsey bank deposit interest) and will not be required to file an annual income tax return to the Director of the Revenue Service.

Guernsey currently does not levy taxes upon capital transactions and there is no Value Added Tax/ Goods and Services Tax or inheritance tax in Guernsey.

No stamp duty or other taxes are chargeable in Guernsey on the issue, transfer, disposal, conversion or redemption of Participating Shares.

Taxation of Shareholders

Shareholders not resident in Guernsey for tax purposes will not be subject to income tax in Guernsey and, therefore, will receive dividends without deduction of Guernsey income tax.

Any Shareholders who are tax resident in Guernsey (for income tax purposes "Guernsey" includes Alderney and Herm) will be subject to income tax in Guernsey on any dividends paid on Participating Shares owned by them.

It should be noted that Guernsey resident companies are required to withhold tax on dividend payments to Guernsey resident individual shareholders to the extent the income has not suffered tax at the personal income tax rate (of 20%) at the company level. However, as the Company has been granted exempt status and, therefore, is treated as a non-Guernsey resident company, tax should not be withheld on any dividends payable by the Company to Guernsey resident individuals provided the Company maintains its exempt status.

The Company is required to provide the Director of the Revenue Service in Guernsey with the relevant information relating to any distribution paid to Guernsey resident individual shareholders as the Director of the Revenue Service may require, including the names and addresses of the individuals, the gross amount of any distribution paid and the date of the payment. Shareholders resident in Guernsey should note that where income is not distributed but is accumulated, then a tax charge will not arise until the holding is disposed of. On disposal, the element of the proceeds relating to the accumulated income will have to be determined.

The Director of the Revenue Service may require the Company to provide the name and address of every Guernsey resident individual who, on a specified date, has a beneficial interest in Participating Shares in the Company, with details of the interest, to ensure their records are complete and correct.

Shareholders are not subject to tax in Guernsey as a result of purchasing, owning or disposing of Participating Shares or either participating or choosing not to participate in a redemption of Participating Shares.

FATCA U.S.-Guernsey Intergovernmental Agreement

On 13 December 2013 the Chief Minister of Guernsey signed an intergovernmental agreement with the U.S. ("U.S.-Guernsey IGA") regarding the implementation of the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act, or FATCA". Under FATCA and legislation enacted in Guernsey to U.S.-Guernsey IGA, certain disclosure requirements will be imposed in respect of certain Shareholders who are, or are entities that are controlled by one or more natural persons who are, residents or citizens of the U.S., unless a relevant exemption applies. Certain due diligence obligations will also be imposed. Where applicable, information to be disclosed will include certain information about Shareholders, their ultimate beneficial owners and/or controllers, and their investment in and returns from the Company. The Company will be required to report this information each year in the prescribed format and manner as per local guidance.

Under the terms of the U.S.-Guernsey IGA, Guernsey resident financial institutions that comply with the due diligence and reporting requirements of Guernsey's domestic legislation will be treated as compliant with FATCA and, as a result, should not be subject to FATCA withholding on payments they receive and should not be required to withhold under FATCA on payments they make. If the Company does not comply with these obligations, it may be subject to a FATCA deduction on certain payments to it on U.S. source income (including interest and dividends) and (from no earlier than two years after the date of publication of certain final regulations defining "foreign passthru payments") a portion of non-U.S. source payments from certain non-U.S. financial institutions to the extent attributable to U.S. source payments. The U.S.-Guernsey IGA is implemented through Guernsey's domestic legislation, in accordance with regulations and guidance published in draft form.

Common Reporting Standard

On 13 February 2014, the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development released the Common Reporting Standard ("CRS") designed to create a global standard for the automatic exchange of financial account information, similar to the information to be reported under US/UK FATCA. On 29 October 2014, fifty-one jurisdictions signed the multilateral competent authority agreement ("Multilateral Agreement") that activates this automatic exchange of FATCA-like information in line with the CRS. Since then further jurisdictions have signed the Multilateral Agreement and in total over 100 jurisdictions have committed to adopting the CRS. Many of these jurisdictions have now adopted the CRS. Guernsey adopted the CRS with effect from 1 January 2016.

Under the CRS and legislation enacted in Guernsey to implement the CRS, certain disclosure requirements will be imposed in respect of certain Shareholders who are, or are entities that are controlled by one or more natural persons who are, residents of any of the jurisdictions that have also adopted the CRS, unless a relevant exemption applies. Certain due diligence obligations will also be imposed. Where applicable, that would need to be disclosed will include certain information about Shareholders, their ultimate beneficial owners and/or controllers, and their investment in and returns from the Company. The Company will be required to report this information each year in the prescribed format and manner as per local guidance. The CRS is implemented through Guernsey's domestic legislation in accordance with published local guidance which is supplemented by guidance issued by the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development.

All prospective investors should consult with their own tax advisers regarding the possible implications of FATCA, the CRS and any other similar legislation and/or regulations on their investment in the Company.

If the Company fails to comply with any due diligence and/or reporting requirements under Guernsey legislation implementing the U.S.-Guernsey IGA and/or the CRS then the Company could be subject to (in the case of the U.S.-Guernsey IGA) U.S. withholding tax on certain U.S. source payments, and (in all cases) the imposition of financial penalties introduced pursuant to the relevant implementing regulations in Guernsey. Whilst the Company will seek to satisfy its obligations under the U.S.-Guernsey IGA and the CRS and associated implementing legislation in Guernsey to avoid the imposition of any financial penalties under Guernsey law, the ability of the Company to satisfy such obligations will depend on receiving relevant information and/or documentation about each Shareholder and the direct and indirect beneficial owners of the Shareholders (if any). There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to satisfy such obligations.

Request for Information

The Company reserves the right to request from any Shareholder or potential investor such information as the Company deems necessary to comply with FATCA and the CRS, or any obligation arising under the implementation of any applicable intergovernmental agreement, including the U.S.-Guernsey IGA and the Multilateral Agreement, relating to FATCA, the CRS or the automatic exchange of information with any relevant competent authority.

The Company will seek to satisfy its obligations under each of the U.S.-Guernsey IGA and the CRS as implemented in Guernsey pursuant to regulations and to guidance in order to avoid the imposition of any financial penalties under Guernsey law.

Withholding Taxes

Some of the countries in which Cells may invest from time to time impose withholding taxes on interest and dividends remitted out of their country to non-residents. In addition, some countries may seek to impose taxes on realised or unrealised appreciations in value of Cell assets. Given the wide diversification of the likely investments, both by country and by instrument, it is not possible to provide detailed advice or indication on the likely withholding tax position of any Cell.

EU Council list of non-cooperative jurisdictions

On 5 December 2017, the EU Council released a list of non-EU jurisdictions (which has since been updated on a number of occasions) that are deemed by the EU Council to be "non-cooperative jurisdictions" for tax purposes (the "Blacklist") and a list of additional non-EU jurisdictions that had committed to introduce specified amendments to their tax regimes by 2018/2019 in order to remain off the Blacklist (the "Grey List"). Guernsey had been listed by the EU Council as a member of the Grey List pending its adoption of appropriate economic substance legislation by the end of 2018.

Guernsey adopted economic substance legislation within the timeframe and on 12 March 2019 the EU Council confirmed that Guernsey had met its commitment and removed Guernsey from the Grey List. Guernsey remains off the Blacklist. A jurisdiction's inclusion on the Blacklist may result in EU Member States imposing both tax and non-tax defensive measures against entities that are present in that Blacklisted jurisdiction. It should be understood that a relevant jurisdiction's inclusion on the Blacklist may have an adverse impact on any companies that are connected with that jurisdiction. As the Company is a collective investment vehicle, it is not expected to be subject to the economic substance legislation adopted by Guernsey.

South African Taxation

The comments below are intended as a general guide to the relevant tax laws of South Africa as at the date of these Particulars. South African tax legislation is subject to change and accordingly the comments as set out below may be subject to change, possibly with retrospective effect.

The contents of this section headed "South African Taxation" do not constitute tax or legal advice and do not purport to describe all of the considerations that may be relevant to a prospective subscriber for or purchaser of any Participating Shares. Prospective subscribers for or purchasers of any Participating Shares should consult their professional advisors in this regard.

The comments below apply to South African investors who are residents for South African tax purposes, who hold their Participating Shares as an investment and not as trading stock and have not (or are not deemed to have) acquired their shares by virtue of an office of director or employment. If the South African investors hold the Participating Shares as trading stock or they were acquired by virtue of an office of director or employment from any person by arrangement with the South African investor's employer, they may not be taxed by reference to the general principles set out below.

Taxation of dividends

This section only relates to the receipt or accrual of distributions by South African investors, other than instances where the distributions constitute an amount paid or payable for the redemption of a Participating Share or where Participating Shares are distributed to the South African investors in lieu of a cash distribution (referred to below).

On the basis that such distributions will constitute dividends or similar payments by the Funds in accordance with the income tax laws, or failing any applicable income tax laws, the laws on companies, of Guernsey, the distributions will constitute "foreign dividends" for South African tax purposes. Any such foreign dividends received by or accrued to a South African investor from the Funds should be included in the gross income of the South African Investor, or where such foreign dividend is attributed to another taxpayer, or deemed to accrue to such other taxpayer, then such other taxpayer must include such foreign dividend in its gross income.

The South African investor (to the extent that the investor is not generally exempt from tax in South Africa) should enjoy a partial foreign dividend exemption, resulting in the foreign dividend being subject to income tax at a maximum effective rate of 20%.

On the basis that the Funds are not listed on an exchange in South Africa, the distributions by the Funds should not be subject to South African dividends tax.

Taxation of re-investment of dividends

To the extent that South African investors utilise cash distributions received by or accrued to them to subscribe for further Participating Shares, the South African tax implications of the receipt or accrual of the foreign dividend will be as set out above. In addition, the further Participating Shares which are acquired by reinvesting the foreign dividend, should be acquired at a base cost (for future capital gains tax purposes) equal to the amount of the foreign dividend which is reinvested.

Conversely, to the extent that the South African investors are receiving or accruing Participating Shares in lieu of any cash distribution (i.e. the new Participating Shares itself is distributed as a dividend to the South African investors), such distribution of the Participating Shares should not constitute a “foreign dividend” for South African tax purposes. Accordingly, no income tax should be levied on the receipt or accrual of the new Participating Shares. However, in such an instance, the South African investors will be deemed to have received or accrued the Participating Shares at no base cost for future capital gains tax purposes. Therefore, even though there will not be an immediate income tax liability on the distribution in specie of Participating Shares, there may be an increased capital gains tax liability upon the ultimate disposal/redemption of such Participating Shares.

Taxation of redemption or disposal of Participating Shares

South African investors should be liable to South African capital gains tax on capital gains realised on the redemption or disposal of their Participating Shares, unless such person is exempt from capital gains tax, is able to attribute such gain to another taxpayer or has tax losses that may be deducted from such capital gains. The capital gain on which capital gains tax may be levied is, broadly speaking, calculated as the difference between the redemption/disposal proceeds and the cost at which the Participating Shares have been acquired by the relevant South African Investor.

To the extent that the Participating Shares are acquired or disposed of in a foreign currency (which should mostly be the case), there are specific rules that will apply in order to translate such gain or loss on the redemption/disposal to South African Rand:

In respect of South African investors who are natural persons or trusts (not carrying on trading), where they have acquired the Participating Shares in a particular foreign currency and disposed of the Participating Shares for proceeds in the same foreign currency, the capital gain or loss on the redemption/disposal must be determined in that foreign currency and then translated to South African Rand by applying, at the election of the South African Investor, the average exchange rate for the year of assessment in which the redemption/disposal took place or by applying the spot rate on the date of redemption/disposal. In all other instances, the capital gain or loss must be determined by translating the redemption/disposal proceeds to South African Rand by applying, at the election of the South African investor, either the spot rate on the date of redemption/disposal or the average exchange rate for the year of assessment in which the redemption/disposal took place, and by translating the cost at which the Participating Shares were acquired to South African Rand by applying, at the election of the South African Investor, either the spot rate on the date on which the Participating Shares were acquired, or the average exchange rate for the year of assessment in which the Participating Shares were acquired.

Other South African tax considerations

South African investors who hold (together with connected persons) 10% or more of the Participating Shares or voting rights in the Funds may be subject to South African income tax in respect of their proportionate share of the Funds’ net income or gains, determined as if the Funds were South African taxpayers, in terms of the South African controlled foreign company rules. These provisions only apply if the Funds are treated as “controlled foreign companies” which may be the case if more than 50% of the Participating Shares or voting rights of the Funds are directly or indirectly held or exercisable by South African investors, but excluding South African investors holding less than 5% of the Participating Shares or voting rights in the Funds, unless more than 50% of the Participating Shares or voting rights are held by persons who are connected persons in relation to each other. Based on the current investor profile of the Funds, this is unlikely to be the case.

Exchange control

As the Company and/or the Funds constitute foreign companies, the South African exchange control rules and regulations will regulate the investment in the Funds by South African investors. Such investment in the Company and/or the Funds by South African investors, in the case of natural persons, may be made by utilizing either the individual’s annual single discretionary allowance of 1 million Rand, annual foreign capital investment allowance of 10 million Rand and/or from the proceeds of authorised foreign assets. Furthermore, in the case of institutional investors (including registered stockbrokers), the investment may be made utilising the institutional investor’s foreign portfolio investment allowance. All of the foregoing is subject to the necessary formalities being attended to through authorised dealers.

United Kingdom reporting status

HM Revenue & Customs has under Regulation 55(1) of The Offshore Funds (Tax) Regulations 2009, approved all share classes in issue of the Peregrine Global Balanced Fund (“the Fund”) as a Reporting Fund effective from 1 April 2018 .

As a Reporting Fund, UK investors may be liable to tax annually on their share of Fund income, without receiving a distribution of that income from the Fund. Within six months of their respective year-ends, the Fund will make available, on the website www.peregrine.co.za, a report providing relevant fund income information for UK investors’ tax purposes.

The Fund will continue to qualify as a Reporting Fund unless and until it fails to comply with the relevant requirements. The Manager intends to manage the Funds in such a way that under existing United Kingdom legislation they should continue to qualify as a Reporting Fund. However, there can be no assurance that the Fund will continue to qualify as a Reporting Fund.

Persons interested in purchasing Participating Shares should inform themselves as to any tax consequences particular to their circumstances arising in the jurisdiction in which they are resident or domiciled for tax purposes in connection with the acquisition, ownership, redemption or disposal by them of any Participating Shares.

- (2) where any asset is derived from another asset (whether cash or otherwise), such derivative asset shall be applied in the books of the Company to the same Cell as the asset from which it was derived and on each revaluation of an asset the increase or diminution in value shall be applied to the relevant Cell;

  - (a) if the transfer would result in the transferor or the transferee being the holder of less than the minimum number of Participating Shares of any Cell or minimum amount in value of a holding of Participating Shares of any Cell specified in the relevant Supplemental Particulars;
  - (b) if it appears to the Directors that the transferee is not qualified to hold shares in the Company or that the registration of the transferee as a Shareholder will or may result in the Company incurring any liability to taxation or suffering any pecuniary or other disadvantage which the Company might not otherwise have incurred or suffered or the classification of the Company as an "investment company" under the 1940 Act;
  - (c) if the transferee fails or refuses to furnish the Directors with such information or declarations as they may require.

- (5) Provided the nature and extent of any interest of his is or has been declared to the other Directors, a Director notwithstanding his office:-
  - (a) may be a party to, or otherwise interested in, any transaction or arrangement with the Company, or in which the Company is otherwise interested;

  - (c) may be a Director or other officer of, or employed by, or a party to any transaction or arrangement with, a shareholder of or otherwise directly or indirectly interested in, any body corporate promoted by the Company or with which the Company has entered into any transaction, arrangement or agreement or in which the Company is otherwise interested; and
  - (d) shall not by reason of his office, be accountable to the Company for any benefit which he derives from any such office or employment or from any such transaction or arrangement or from any interest in any such body corporate and no such transaction or arrangement shall be liable to be avoided on the ground of any such interest or benefit.

Borrowing Powers

Subject to the borrowing restrictions set out in the relevant Supplemental Particulars, the Directors may exercise all the powers of the Company to borrow money and hypothecate, mortgage, charge or pledge the assets, property and undertaking of a Cell or any part thereof and to issue debentures and other securities whether outright or as collateral security for any debt, liability or obligation of the relevant Cell.

Dividends and Distributions

- (1) Subject to the Companies Law dividends and distributions shall be payable to the Shareholders in accordance with the following provisions:
  - (a) the Directors may from time to time if they think fit pay such dividends and distributions (including interim dividends) on Participating Shares of any particular Cell as appear to the Directors to be justified; and
  - (b) unless a Shareholder otherwise elects, either generally or in any particular case, dividends and distributions to which that Shareholder is entitled will be applied in acquiring additional Participating Shares for that Shareholder on the Subscription Day on which the dividend or distribution is paid at the Subscription Price ruling on that Subscription Day free of any initial charge.
- (2) The Directors may, with the sanction of an Ordinary Resolution of the Shareholders of a Cell, satisfy any dividend, in whole or in part, by distributing in specie any of the assets of the Cell concerned provided that no Shareholder shall be compelled to accept any asset on which there is a liability.
- (3) All unclaimed dividends may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed. No dividend shall bear interest against the Company. Any dividend unclaimed after a period of six years from the date of declaration thereof will be forfeited and will revert to the Cell in respect of which it was declared and the payment by the Directors of any unclaimed dividend or other sum payable on or in respect of a Participating Share into a separate account will not constitute the Company a trustee in respect thereof.

Valuation of Net Assets

- (1) The Directors have delegated the responsibility for the calculation of the Net Asset Value for each Cell to the Manager who in turn has further delegated the responsibility to the Administrator. Valuations made pursuant to the Articles are binding on all persons. In calculating the Net Asset Value the Articles provide inter alia that:-
  - (a) deposits shall be valued at their principal amount plus accrued interest calculated on a daily basis;
  - (b) certificates of deposit shall be valued with reference to the best price bid for certificates of deposit of like maturity, amount and credit risk, for settlement as at the relevant Valuation Point;

- (c) treasury bills and bills of exchange shall be valued with reference to prices ruling in the appropriate markets for such instruments for settlement as at the relevant Valuation Point;
  - (d) forward foreign exchange contracts will be valued by reference to market value of similar contracts settled as at the relevant Valuation Point;
  - (e) all valuations of financial futures contracts and purchased or sold options shall be assessed by reference to the prevailing prices on the relevant futures/options exchanges;
  - (f) where any security owned or contracted for by the Company is listed or dealt in on a Recognised Investment Exchange or on any over-the-counter market, all calculations of the Net Asset Value which are required for the purpose of computing the price at which Participating Shares of any class are to be issued or redeemed, shall be based on the latest trade price therefor as at the relevant Valuation Point. When such security is listed or dealt in on more than one Recognised Investment Exchange or over-the-counter market the Directors may in their absolute discretion select any one of such stock exchanges or over-the-counter markets for the foregoing purposes;
  - (g) in respect of any security the quotation of which has been temporarily suspended or in which there has been no recent trading, the value shall be taken to be a reasonable estimate of the amount which would be received by a seller by way of consideration for an immediate transfer or assignment from the seller at arm's length less any fiscal charges, commission and other sales charges which would be payable by the seller;
  - (h) the value of any investment which is not quoted, listed or normally dealt in on a stock exchange or over the counter market shall be the value considered by the Directors in good faith to be the value thereof;
  - (i) the value of any units, shares or other security of any unit trust, mutual fund, investment company or other similar investment vehicle or collective investment scheme shall be derived from the last prices, whether estimated or final, published by the managers thereof.
- (2) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Directors shall be entitled, at their discretion, to apply a method of valuing any Investment different from that prescribed hereunder if such method would in their opinion better reflect the fair value of such investment and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Directors may rely upon opinions and estimates of any persons who appear to them to be competent to value investments of any type or designation by reason of any appropriate professional qualification or experience of the relevant market.
- (3) In preparing any valuation the Manager (or its appointee) may rely on information provided by any person whom the Manager considers to be suitably qualified to do so and who is approved by the Custodian (an "Approved Person"). Any prices notified to the Manager by an Approved Person as representing a fair market bid price and a fair market offer price of any investment shall be conclusive in the absence of manifest error.
- (4) If an Approved Person shall certify either:-
- that any investment comprised in a Cell is unsaleable;

- that no market price or prices by reference to which the value of an Investment would otherwise fall to be calculated was quoted on a Recognised Investment Exchange in respect of such Investment; or
- that market bid and offer prices on a Recognised Investment Exchange for any other reason are not available in respect of any Investment;

the value of such investment shall be taken into account at such price as is certified by an Approved Person or other professional person approved for the purpose or generally by the Custodian or such as the Manager considers in the circumstances to be fair and which the Custodian approves. In the absence of such a certified price, the Investment shall be valued at the last available mid-price until such time as a mid-price certified as fair by an Approved Person or other professional person shall become available and be satisfactory to the Custodian.

For the purpose of the calculation of the Net Asset Value:-

- (a) assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies will be translated into the Base Currency of the relevant Cell at the spot rate of exchange ruling at the relevant Valuation Point, and any forward foreign exchange positions at a forward rate of exchange ruling at the Valuation Point;
- (b) fees, expenses and assets attributable to a particular Cell shall be borne by or allocated to that Cell. In the case of any fees, expenses or assets which the Directors do not consider to be readily attributable to any particular Cell the Directors shall, subject to the approval of the Auditors to the Company, determine the basis upon which such fees, expenses or assets as the case may be shall be allocated between Cells and shall have power at any time and from time to time to vary such basis. The approval of the Auditors is not required where the fee, expense, or asset is to be allocated between Cells pro rata to their Net Asset Values.

The Directors are bound to convene an extraordinary general meeting for the purpose of passing a Special Resolution for the winding up of the Company if the Company's authorisation under the 2020 Law is revoked (unless the GFSC otherwise agrees). On a winding up a liquidator will be appointed firstly to pay the debts of the Company and then to distribute its assets amongst Shareholders, according to the rights attached to their shares.
